- (A) Named to 2003 Conference Academic Honor Roll

Player of the Year – Amy Midgely, Ursinus, Sr.

Notes

- Midgely is the first Bear to earn Centennial Player of the Year honors. This is the first year that Ursinus is competing for the Conference championship.
- Camponelli was a unanimous selection by the 11 Conference head coaches.
- Ritter becomes just the seventh player in CC history to earn first-team All-Centennial honors three times.
- Patel and Lorang become the 12th and 13th players in Conference history to earn first or second-team All-Centennial honors as freshmen. The pair are the first Garnet players to do so since Donna Griffin (2nd) in 1995.
- Six students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes sophomores, junior and seniors who are key performers and have a 3.40 cumulative grade point average or higher.
- Ritter and O'Neill are Gettysburg's 27th and 28th first-team All-CC selections in the 11-year history of the Conference – tops among member schools.
