Offensive Player of the Year: Kodi Shay, Muhlenberg, Sr., WR/KR

Defensive Player of the Year: Matt Campbell, Johns Hopkins, Jr., DB

NOTES

- Shay is the second straight player from Muhlenberg and third in four seasons to win the Centennial Offensive Player of the Year award, following in the footsteps of Joshua Carter (2000) and Justin Jones (2002). His selection breaks a streak on nine years in which the POY has been a quarterback.
- Campbell is the third player from Johns Hopkins to win the Centennial Defensive Player of the Year award. He is the first DB to win the award since Harrison Bernstein of Johns Hopkins won it in 1997.
- Bernardo becomes the 28th player in the 21-year history of the Conference to earn first-team All-Centennial honors three times.
- Seven offensive players and five defensive players were unanimous selections. Offense: Merrell, Cook, Bernardo, Salton, Weeks, Radomski and Santini. Defense: Smith, Briscella, Campbell, Wingfield and Shay.
- Six students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes sophomores, junior and seniors who are key performers and have a 3.40 cumulative grade point average or higher.
