MUHLENBERG PLACES SIX ON ALL-CENTENNIAL WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM F&M Midfielder Heather Rice Named Player of the Year

LANCASTER, Pa. -- November 7, 2001 -- Muhlenberg, which won its second consecutive Conference championship, placed six players on the 2001 All-Centennial Conference women's soccer team which was announced today.

Franklin & Marshall junior midfielder Heather Rice (Pittsburgh, PA / Fox Chapel) was a first-team choice and also named the Conference's Player of the Year in balloting conducted by the conference's 11 head coaches. She was fourth in the Conference in scoring and first among middies with 10 goals and nine assists for 29 points. Rice is the program's first Conference Player of the Year and becomes just the seventh player in Centennial history to earn first-team All-CC honors three times.

Muhlenberg placed four players on the first unit, one on the second team and one received honorable mention. Sophomore forward Dawn Iberer (Andover Township, NJ / Newton) earned her second straight first-team honor, after finishing second in the Conference in goals (16) and points (36). Freshman teammate Becky Armstrong (Quakertown, PA / Quakertown Community) joins Iberer up front, after registering nine goals and eight assists in her first collegiate campaign. Senior midfielder Jennie Vroman (Exeter Township, PA / Exeter Township) moved up from the 2000 honorable mention list, while junior goalkeeper Kim Laurino (Franklin, NJ / Morris Catholic) made the leap from the 2000 second team. Laurino posted an 86.5 save percentage and an 0.76 goals against slate. Her nine shutouts topped all CC keepers. Named to the second team was sophomore back Katie Custance (New Milford, CT / Canterbury School), while junior midfielder Jamie Gluck (Rye, NY / Rye) received honorable mention.

Dickinson sophomore Alyssa Carlow (McLean, VA / McLean), the Conference's leading goal (17) and point (42) producer, and Western Maryland junior Melissa Merson (New Windsor, MD / Francis Scott Key) were also named first-team forwards. A unanimous selection, it is the second straight nod for Carlow who has 39 career goals in two seasons. Merson had nine goals and nine assists on the year.

Rice and Vroman are joined at midfield by Johns Hopkins junior Jill Minger (Durham, OR / St. Mary's) and Gettysburg freshman Elizabeth Feldhusen (Acton, MA / Acton-Boxborough). It is the second consecutive first-team nod for Minger.

Two seniors and a junior comprise the first-team backfield. Haverford senior Liz Young (Macungie, PA / Emmaus) was a unanimous first-team choice, after receiving second-team honors the past two seasons. Gettysburg senior Kay McLaughlin (Floral Park, NY / St. Mary's) and Johns Hopkins junior Lauren Hanlon (Manalapan, NJ / Manalapan) join Young. Hanlon moved up from the 2000 second unit, after helping the Blue Jays' defense permit just five goals in 10 Conference matches this fall.
