Notes

- Nichols is the second Dickinson player to earn Player of Year honors, following in the footsteps of Alyssa Carlow (2003). She is the only unanimous first-team selection on the 2007 squad in balloting by the head coaches.
- Nichols and Mullarkey become the 15th and 16th players in Conference history to earn first-team All-Centennial honors three times.
- Colombo and Paulucci become just 16th and 17th freshmen to earn first-team All-Centennial honors.
- Gettysburg now has 41 all-time first-team selections - the highest total in the Conference. Johns Hopkins (35) and Muhlenberg (24) are second and third, followed by Haverford (15), McDaniel (15), Dickinson (11), Franklin & Marshall (11), Swarthmore (8), Bryn Mawr (4), and Ursinus (4).
- Seven students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes sophomores, junior and seniors who are key performers and have a 3.40 cumulative grade point average or higher.
