(A) Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll selection

NOTES:

- Franklin & Marshall won its first-ever Centennial women's swimming title.
- F&M's Krystle Satrum (100/200 backstroke) became the third swimmer in Conference history to earn first-team All-Centennial honors (win her event) four times.
- Washington's Margaret Klag was the Meet's Outstanding Performer – the Shorewomen's second award winner. She set a Conference record in the 100 breaststroke and a meet record in the 200 breaststroke
- Eight students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll which recognizes sophomores, juniors and seniors who are key performers and have a cumulative 3.40 grade point average or higher.
