(A) Named to 2006 Conference Academic Honor Roll

Player of the Year – Gary Kruger, Franklin & Marshall, Sr., 3B

Pitcher of the Year – Ted Serro, Franklin & Marshall, Sr., RHP

Notes

- Kruger is the second Franklin & Marshall player to earn Centennial Player of the Year honors, following in the footsteps of Andy Myers (2002). He is the first third baseman to receive the honor.
- Serro is the second Franklin & Marshall hurler to receive Centennial Pitcher of the Year honors twice, following in the footsteps of Tim Sheridan (1995-96). He continues the streak of pitchers winning back-to-back awards which began with Sheridan in 1995.
- It is the fifth time that players from one school have earned the Centennial Player and Pitcher of the Year awards in the same season (1997-98-03-04).
- Serro, McAlpine, Bonyai and Rosenberg are repeaters from the 2005 All-CC first team.
- Johns Hopkins placed four players on the first team, raising its total to 45 first-team All-Centennial selections since 1994. Ursinus is second in the Conference with 27 first-teamers, while Franklin & Marshall is next (20).
- Five students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes sophomores, junior and seniors who are key performers and have a 3.40 cumulative grade point average or higher.
