Notes

- Kahn becomes the ninth Johns Hopkins player (10th honoree) to earn Centennial Player of the Year honors.
- Eagleson is the seventh Blue Jay hurler (fourth honoree) to earn the Centennial Pitcher of the Year award and first since Jeremy Brown in 2004.
- Youchak and Kahn were unanimous first-team selections of the Conference coaches.
- Youchak is the fifth Hopkins and sixth player overall in Conference history to earn first-team All-Centennial honors three times.
- Johns Hopkins placed seven players on the first team, raising its total to 64 first-team All-Centennial selections since 1994. Ursinus is second in the Conference with 31 first-teamers, while Franklin & Marshall (27), Gettysburg (17), Muhlenberg (12), Washington (11), Haverford (10), Dickinson (9), McDaniel (5) and Swarthmore (3) follow.
- Three students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes sophomores, junior and seniors who are key performers and have a 3.40 cumulative grade point average or higher.
