NOTES:

- Haverford won its 10th consecutive Centennial men's cross country title.
- The 11-point difference between Haverford and Muhlenberg was the closest in the 10-year history of the meet. The 1993 meet was decided by 12 points (Haverford-31, Franklin & Marshall-43)
- Junior Brandon Rowe is the seventh Haverford runner to take individual honors. He won the race in 27:29.26.
- Haverford senior Greg Bielecki became the seventh runner to earn first-team All-Centennial honors (finishing in the top seven) three times. He joins F&M's Luke Kiskaddon and former Fords Karl Paranya (1993-94-95-96), Mark Gynadoh (1993-94-95), Ntobeko Ntusi (1995-96-97), Joe McCool (1998-99-00) and Stephen Petro (1997-99-00) in the elite group.
- Haverford has had 45 runners earn first-team All-Centennial honors. This was the first time that Muhlenberg has placed a runner in the top seven.
