NOTES:

- Dickinson won its third consecutive Centennial women's cross country title and fifth in six years.
- The Red Devils' five championships is the most by a Conference school. Haverford has won three women's titles, while Gettysburg and McDaniel (formerly Western Maryland) each have one championship to its credit.
- Junior Callie Bradley is the second Dickinson runner to capture the individual women's crown, following in the footsteps of Kelly Reynolds in 1997.
- Dickinson senior Alex Forte became the ninth runner to earn first-team All-Centennial honors (finishing in the top seven) three times. She joins Dickinson's Rachel Leverenz (1998-99-00-01), F&M's Jamie Kendig (1993-94-95), Gettysburg's Wendy Johnston (1994-95-96), Haverford's Meredith Unger (1994-95-96), Rachel Mosher (1996-97-98) and Kristen Wilson (1999-00-01), Swarthmore's Joko Agunloye (1997-98-99-00) and Western Maryland's Jill Krebs (1998-99-00-01) in the elite group.
- Haverford has had the most first-team selections since 1993 with 19, followed by Dickinson (17), Gettysburg (11) and Swarthmore (10).
