Notes from around the Conference

JHU - Farrelly now has 15 goals this season, tying her for the third highest single-season total in school history...her 35 points put her in fourth place on the single-season points list...JHU has appeared in all three CC title games.

SWAT - Meg Woodworth (Lexington, MA - Middlesex) closed her career with 26 goals and eight assists for 60 points, she ranks eighth on the Swarthmore career goals list and 10th on the points list. Kate Nelson-Lee (Jamestown, RI - The Wheeler School) closed her career as Swarthmore's all-time saves leader with 425.

The Red Devils finished the season 8-10 overall with six of those losses coming to nationally-ranked teams. Dickinson face seven ranked teams during the season, including four in the top 10. The Devils also went into overtime on six separate occasions, much in part to the outstanding play of goalkeeper Marissa Giorgio (Rehrersburg, Pa/Tulpehocken).

The Diplomats started off the week with a 1-0 double overtime victory over Dickinson College when Alison Reindle (Sr., Fleetwood, PA/ Muhlenberg) scored on a penalty stroke. Jenny Lindner (Sr., Northport, NY/ Friends Academy) came away with her seventh shutout on the year. The win moved Franklin & Marshall into the Centennial Conference Playoffs as the fourth seed. The Diplomats faced off against the top seed McDaniel College. McDaniel defeated F&M 1-0 the same score as when they played in Lancaster earlier in the year. Jenny Lindner made nine saves in the game.

MCD - Kim Camponelli's two assists in the Conference Championships broke the single season assist record at McDaniel College
