- (A) Named to 2004 Conference Academic Honor Roll

Player of the Year – Joyce Anne Koubaroulis, Ursinus, Sr.

Notes

- Koubaroulis is the second consecutive Ursinus player to earn Centennial Player of the Year honors, following in the footsteps of Amy Midgely. She is the first back to receive the award.
- Keever and Goddu were unanimous selections by the 11 Conference head coaches.
- Scimeca becomes just the eighth player in CC history to earn first-team All-Centennial honors three times.
- Lamina becomes the 14th player in Conference history to earn first or second-team All-Centennial honors as a freshman.
- 10 students were also named to the Conference Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes sophomores, junior and seniors who are key performers and have a 3.40 cumulative grade point average or higher.
- Goddu and Heeneke are Gettysburg's 29th and 30th first-team All-CC selections in the 12-year history of the Conference – tops among member schools.
