Tee Shots

The 2008 Centennial Conference championship tournament tees off Friday at The Bridges Golf Club in Abbottstown, Pa. The 54-hole tournament is hosted by Gettysburg with Franklin & Marshall as the defending champion.

The Diplomats have the best W-L record in Centennial dual competition (29-3) this season and the lowest team stroke average (308.5). McDaniel is second at 19-10 overall and a 313.4 average.

Diplomat sophomore Joe Fucigna (Weston, CT / Weston) and Green Terror freshman Paul Kovalcheck (Fairless Hills, PA / Truman) are 1-2 on the individual stroke average list at 77.18 and 77.24, respectively. The top 10 players by stroke average are all underclassmen - three freshmen, three sophs and four juniors.

The Conference has not had any individual winners at tournaments with 10 or more teams this spring but has had three runner-up finishes in the last two weeks. Ursinus' Bo Maguire (Pottstown, PA / Hill School) shot 71 at Elizabethtown, while Muhlenberg's Zach Oyer (Madison, NJ / Madison) tied for second with a 74 at Susquehanna. McDaniel senior Zach LaVoie (Princeton, NJ / Pinedale), the defending Centennial champion, was runner-up with a 72-74-146 at Glenmaura.

LaVoie has the opportunity to become the first back-to-back Centennial champion since Gettysburg's Jeff Forbes in 1996-97 and the third to win a pair of Conference individual crowns. Gettysburg's Mike McLaughlin won titles in 2000 and 2002.
