Offensive Player of the Week

Hollis Stahl, Gettysburg

(So, A, Hightstown, NJ / Peddie School) - Stahl scored a career-high seven goals to lead fourth-ranked Gettysburg to a 19-17 victory over No. 3 Middlebury on Thursday, March 27. Each of her first three goals broke ties in the game, but her most important score came with the Bullets trailing with just over one minute remaining when she tossed in the game-tying goal to force overtime. In the extra session, Stahl netted the first goal on a free position attempt and polished off the victory with the final tally with six seconds remaining. She also added five draw controls and a pair of caused turnovers in the contest.

Defensive Player of the Week

Lidia Sanza, Franklin & Marshall

(So, GK, Cockeysville, MD / St. Paul's School for Girls) - Sanza made 12 saves and posted a 5.63 goals against average, while going 1-1 on the week. She made four stops vs. Swarthmore and then held Salisbury to just nine goals, 11 below its average, while making eight saves against the No. 2 team in Division III.

Quick Sticks

Washington's 21 goals against Wesley Sunday represented the most the Shorewomen have scored in a single game since putting up a school record-tying 24 in a win over Muhlenberg on March 27th, 2004. The 17-goal margin of victory was one off the school record set during a 21-3 win over Swarthmore on March 18th, 1991.

Gettysburg is averaging almost 18 goals per game this season, well above the school record of 15.5 set by the 2003 squad...The Bullets are off to their second-best start in school history, trailing the 2006 squad's 21-game win streak en route to the national title game.

F&M's Jen Pritchard (Jr, Media, PA / Penncrest) tallied 11 draw controls against Swarthmore to tie her career high.
