Centennial Notebook

Two teams have qualified for the five-team Centennial championship tournament – Johns Hopkins and Muhlenberg. Haverford and Swarthmore each need one victory in their final two matches to lock up a spot. The tournament begins on November 4 with the first-round game with the semifinals and finals slated for November 7-8.

Muhlenberg, winners of five in a row after victories against Bryn Mawr and Franklin & Marshall, can secure the top seed and home field for the tournament with wins against Ursinus and Gettysburg.

Johns Hopkins registered its 13th shutout of the season with a 6-0 blanking of Bryn Mawr. The school single-season record for shutouts is 17, set last season. Sophomore Erica Suter (Ellicott City, MD / River Hill) scored a pair of goals, giving her 20 in her career.

Sophomore Katie Van Aken (New Hope, PA / Council Rock North) scored in the 79th minute to give Haverford a critical 2-1 win over Dickinson. She also tallied in the 4-0 victory at Washington, giving her a team-high eight goals on the year.

Tie-Breaking Criteria

1. Head-to-Head Centennial Conference competition among tied teams;
2. Records vs. teams in descending order of standing;
3. An extra point shall be awarded to the winning team for each goal scored up to three in games among tied teams;
4. Coin flip by Executive Director.

When secondary criteria separates one or more tied teams, but does not completely break the tie among all teams involved, re-apply the criteria to all groups of teams still tied, starting with the Conference's primary tiebreaker for all sports (head-to-head Centennial competition)
