Top Individual Performances

Steve Kareha, Gettysburg (Sr, 133, Allentown, PA / Willam Allen) - Kareha won three matches this weekend at 133 to help the Bullets capture their first win of the season. He tallied the Bullets only points against Kutztown with a 4-0 decision. Kareha has compiled an 8-3 record with 15 takedowns, eight escapes and five falls.

Jason Suslavich, Johns Hopkins (So, 141, Winchester, MA / Winchester) - Suslavich earned third place at the Red Dragon Invitational as he posted a 4-1 record with four wins by decision.

Bill Bobbit, McDaniel (Jr, 165, Woodstown, NJ / Woodstown) - Bobbit improved to 7-3 on the season with a 5-3 decision over Luke Cummings of Shippensburg. He recorded a pin against Division I UNC-Greensboro’s Charles Jones at the Navy Classic.

Nate Yeasted, Muhlenberg (Sr, 141, Pottsville, PA / Pottsville) - Yeasted's 2-1 win against a 2002 NCAA qualifier in the final bout of the match lifted the Mules to a 23-23 win (on criteria) against McDaniel. He also finished second at the Ursinus Invitational, dropping a one-point decision to the seventh-ranked wrestler in Division III in the title bout.

Around the Conference

CAREER MILESTONES: JHU’s Karol Gryczynski (Jr, Ellicott City, MD/Mount Hebron) needs four wins to reach 50 for his career. Teammate Brian Frank (Sr, Columbia, MD/Howard) earned his 30th career victory last week and has a 30-18career record.

CONFERENCE OPENER: Centennial Conference action opened in dramatic fashion with Muhlenberg earning a 23-23 win by criteria over McDaniel. The Mules won six bouts to the Green Terror’s four to earn the victory.
