Top Individual Performances

Matt Shank, Gettysburg (Fr, 141, Reedsville, PA / Indian Valley) - Shank added to his impressive rookie resume with another 3-0 day on Saturday. The freshman set a new Gettysburg freshman record for wins in a season (36) and moved into second place on the Bullets' all-time single-season wins' lists and pins' list (14). Jake Dell (1994-98) leads both categories with 40 wins and 17 pins.

Nate Van de Venter, Kings Point (Jr, 165, Tannersville, PA / Pocono Mountain) - Van de Venter comes into the Centennial Conference championships with some much-needed momentum, following a 10-1 major decision over Hunter's Erik Giannini.

Steve Jennings, McDaniel (Jr, 184, Beltsville, MD / Pallotti) - Jennings recorded a pair of pins in Saturday's tri-meet sweep against Messiah and King's. Jennings' pin at 197 against Messiah gave McDaniel a 20-17 lead that was closed out by Reinecker. His pin over King's sealed that match.

Matt Loesch, Muhlenberg (So, 197, Carsonville, PA / Upper Dauphin) - Loesch won by major decision, technical fall and forfeit to finish his dual-meet season with a perfect 17-0 record, one win short of the school record for most wins in an undefeated dual season. The only wrestler to go 7-0 against CC competition, Loesch enters this weekend's CC Championships with a 17-bout winning streak.

Michael Detsis, Stevens (Fr, 141, Hillsborough, NJ / Hillsborough) - Detsis finished the season with an impressive overall record of 29-3. He improved to 17-0 in dual matches and 4-0 in the Centennial Conference with two wins by decision over NYU and Ursinus this weekend.

Josh Sabol, Ursinus (Fr, 149, Delran, NJ / Delran) - Sabol posted three wins to help the Bears finish the dual-meet season undefeated. Sabol pinned Matthew Fay of Albright in 2:57 then recorded a win by decision and technical fall against NYU and Stevens, respectively.

David Shubick, Washington & Lee (Fr, 125, Bound Brook, NJ / Bound Brook) - Shubick went 2-0 at 125 pounds at the Baptist Bible Tri-Match on Saturday. He defeated Tim Sullivan of Baptist Bible, 14-4, and pinned Michael Tenenhaus of Centennial Conference-rival Muhlenberg in 56 seconds. Shubick improved to 14-13 on the season and 3-0 against Centennial Conference opponents.

Around the Conference

CENTENNIAL CHAMPIONSHIPS THIS WEEKEND: All eight Centennial teams will be at Muhlenberg College on Saturday, February 19, to battle it out for the 2005 Centennial Conference title. The winners of each weight class will earn a trip to the NCAA Championships at St. Olaf College (MN) on March 4-5. This weekend's action will get underway at 10:00 a.m. For complete tournament details go to: <http://www.centennial.org/championships/wrestling/>

A ROOKIE'S RECORD-SETTING RESUME: Gettysburg's Matt Shank (Fr, Reedsville, PA / Indian Valley) had made the most of his first season in a Gettysburg uniform. The rookie has already amassed more wins than any freshman in program history with 36. He also ranks second on Gettysburg's all-time single-season wins' list and pins' list. He needs four more wins to tie Jake Dell's single-season win total (40) and three falls to tie his pin record (17).

SEEING 20/20: With a 2-1 day on Saturday, the Bullets' Mike Pattanite (So, Tabernacle, NJ / Holy Cross) joined Matt Shank (Fr, Reedsville, PA / Indian Valley) on the 20-win list this season. It marks the first time in three seasons that two Bullets have amassed at least 20 victories. Luke Palumbo (28) and Steve Kareha (21) last accomplished the feat for Gettysburg during the 2001-02 campaign.
