Top Individual Performances

Matt Shank, Gettysburg (Fr, 141, Reedsville, PA / Indian Valley) - Shank has placed in the top four at 141 in all three of the invitationals the Bullets have competed in to date. At Ithaca, he went 4-2 to finish fourth. He placed first with a 3-0 record at King's the next weekend. On Saturday, he was 5-1 to finish third at Springfield.

Jimmy Van Daniker, Johns Hopkins (Jr, 125, Baltimore, MD / Perry Hall) – Van Daniker posted a perfect, 3-0 mark in the 125-pound weight class of the Red Dragons Open. Van Daniker picked up the title in his weight class.

Danny Song, Kings Point (Jr, 149 (Holbrook, NY / Hauppauge) - Song went 7-0 in his first week of USMMA wrestling, and won the 149-pound weight class at the 15th Annual Doug Parker Invitational in Springfield, Mass. He began his Mariners' career with a pair of pins in helping the Blue and Gray win the Skyline Conference Dual Invitational, before ripping off five straight victories in Springfield for the individual championship. Included in his title run were a technical fall and a major decision, before defeating nationally-ranked Dan Whelan (No. 5) of Norwich, 8-3, in the title bout.

Tony Howard, McDaniel (Jr, 165, Gaithersburg, MD / Magruder) - Howard recorded three pins and a technical fall to go 4-0 at the Green Terror Duals.

Matt Loesch, Muhlenberg (So, 197, Carsonville, PA / Upper Dauphin) - Loesch reached the 197-pound final at both King's and Ursinus, losing by decision each time to finish second. Two of Loesch's five wins came by fall, including one in a career-fastest 35 seconds.

Ian Gorham, Stevens (Jr, 125, Old Bridge, NJ / Old Bridge) – Gorham won the 125-pound title at the Roger Williams Invite and won all three of his dual meet bouts vs. Yeshiva, Kings Point and Maritime at the Skyline Invitational. He finished third at the Ursinus Invite and is currently tied for first with teammate Brandon MacWhinnie with an 11-1 record.

Scott Roesch, Ursinus (Sr, Egg Harbor City, NJ / Absegami) - Roesch, currently ranked sixth in the nation at 165, became Ursinus' all-time leader in wins, recording his 123rd victory in his first bout of the day at the Fall Brawl Tournament. He went on to win the 165 title at the Fall Brawl, his third straight championship this season.

Peter Lawrence, Washington & Lee (Fr, 149, Greenwich, CT / Loomis-Chaffee) - Lawrence went 3-1 at the VMI Invitational to place second in the 149-pound weight class. One of his victories came over third-ranked Philip Wightman of Duke. He also went 2-2 at the Ursinus Invitational to finish fourth in the 149-pound weight class.
